17. Educational aims of programme
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The aim of the qualification is to provide a modular route to a recognised level of attainment for practising veterinary surgeons, so that they may perform as competent independent practitioners, delivering a consistently high standard of practice to their clients. 2. The framework also aims to provide a structure for continuing professional development and lifelong learning.
18. Programme outcomes - the programme offers opportunities for students to achieve and demonstrate the following learning outcomes.
Candidates will need to demonstrate: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a thorough understanding of the knowledge base and a critical awareness of developments at the forefront of their area of professional practice; • a comprehensive understanding of techniques applicable to their own area of practice; • originality in the application of knowledge, together with a practical understanding of how established techniques of research and clinical enquiry are used to create and interpret knowledge in their professional area; • conceptual understanding that enables them to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - evaluate critically current literature and research in their professional area and - evaluate clinical methodologies and techniques, and develop critiques of them and, where appropriate to propose new approaches to professional practice.

Typically, holders of the qualification will be able to:

- deal with complex issues in an organised and creative manner, make sound judgements in the absence of complete data, and communicate their conclusions clearly to veterinary colleagues and to non-veterinary audiences, including clients;
- demonstrate self direction and originality in tackling and solving problems, and act autonomously in planning and implementing tasks in their professional area of work;
- continue to advance their knowledge and understanding, and to develop new skills to a high level;

Candidates will have the qualities and transferable skills necessary for professional veterinary work requiring:

- the exercise of initiative and personal responsibility;
- decision-making in complex and unpredictable situations; and
- the independent learning ability required for continuing professional development.
