Assessment & Award Regulations

5.4.	Requirements to Progress to Year 1 of the BVetMed
5.4.1.	To have passed individual module(s) (including exemptions) according to 5.2. above amounting to 120 credits AND
5.4.2.	To have passed the Animal Handling Practical Assessment OR
5.4.3.	To have achieved an aggregated weighted average of 50% from the modules with no more than one or two modules amounting to 30 credits in total gaining a mark between 40 and 49%. All other modules must gain a mark of 50% or more. AND
5.4.4.	To have passed the Animal Handling Practical Assessment
5.5	Progression and Award
5.5.1.	Provided the appropriate requirements are met a student can choose either to progress to Level 5 BSc, BVetMed Year 1 or to claim the award of Certificate of Higher Education.
5.5.2.	In order to progress towards or gain a given award a student will need to have passed and gained credit for modules that meet the required pattern for that award, as defined in the Award Pathway document for BSc and MSci, or the requirements specified here for the BVetMed.
6.	Consequences of Failure
6.1.	A student who fails a module at the first attempt shall have a right to resit. S/he will be required to resit those pieces of work that were failed (with less than 50%) at the next available opportunity.
6.2.	Where the student has not yet completed all of the modules in a Stage, s/he will be required to resit any piece of work with a mark of less than 50% in order to pass a module if it has not been passed on aggregate at the first attempt.
6.3.	The module mark obtained at the second attempt will be no greater than 40%. However, where the work deserves a mark of more than 40% that mark shall be used for the purposes of calculating the overall average mark of 50% required in 5.4. above.
6.4.	When a module resit involves a piece of assessed work, the amount of time the resit student is given to do that work should be the same as on the first occasion.
6.5.	A student who has failed to reach the BVetMed progression threshold at the second attempt and has not previously repeated a year of study will be entitled to repeat the year. The number of attempts at assessments will be the same as for those students not repeating the year.
6.6.	A student who has failed to reach the BVetMed progression threshold at the second attempt and has previously repeated a year of study will be required to withdraw from the course. S/he will have a right of appeal as described in College Regulations
6.7.	A student who has not passed at the end of a repeated year is required to appeal irrespective of any deferrals.

Assessment & Award Regulations

6.8.	A student will be eligible for consideration for transfer to the BSc, according to the College Regulations for transfer between courses, if they have met the passing threshold for BSc. Namely, to have gained a weighted aggregated average of 40% from modules to the value of 120 credits with modules amounting to a total of no more than 30 credits gaining a mark between 30 and 39%. All other modules must have a mark of 40% or more.
7.	Classification and Awards:
7.1.	From the combined mark taken from all of the components defined above, a candidate who chooses to take the Certificate of Higher Education award and achieves: 70% or more at the first attempt from the aggregate of all modules: Distinction 60-69% at the first attempt from the aggregate of all modules: Merit 40-59% at the first attempt from the aggregate of all modules: Pass
7.2.	Where a student chooses to transfer and progress to BSc the marks for Level 4 will contribute 0% to the overall BSc degree classification.
8.	Disclosure of Marks Results will be published by candidate number.
9.	Absence from Summative Assessments and In-Course Assessment
9.1.	An allowable absence is one that is for a significant unforeseeable event such as illness. Any other foreseeable absence will only be considered allowable if agreed by the Student Performance and Development System and this will only apply in very strictly limited circumstances.
9.2.	A student absent for any other reason will be awarded 0 (zero) for the assessment.
9.3.	Where a student has an allowable absence the assessment will be considered to be deferred until the next sitting or submission date except, where a student has an allowable absence for work amounting to no more than 12 credits of assessment, his/her overall mark for the level will be calculated pro rata.
10.	Late Submission of Work Reports, Projects and Assignments submitted after the due deadline will be subject to the late submission policy set out in the College's General Assessment Regulations.
