Information in support of your application

This information which you are required to provide as part of your application will vary according to the programme of study you are applying for.

- Taught programme applicants are asked to include a letter with their application indicating their reasons for wishing to undertake the course and its relevance to their future plans.
- Research programme applicants are asked to submit a detailed outline of their proposed area of research (incomplete or too general information will delay consideration of the application). If you are applying for a specific advertised studentship, this should be a personal statement detailing your suitability for the project and your motivations and intentions.

The College will not accept applications which do not include this information.

Referees

It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that references reach the Graduate School.

We are not able to request references on your behalf and your application will not be assessed until we receive them.
