Do you meet the personal circumstances criteria (listed below) for additional funding? YES NO

If you answered YES, please indicate how you meet the criteria. Students from a disadvantaged background, and who meet one or more of the following as specified by the Turing Scheme, are eligible to be considered for additional IES funding, to support with travel costs, and an increased grant to support cost of living expenses:

- Students from an annual family household income of £25,000 or less
- Students receiving Universal Credit or income-related benefits because they are financially supporting themselves or financially supporting themselves and someone who is dependent on them and living with them, such as a child or partner
- Care leavers and students who are care-experienced. This refers to anyone who has been or is currently in care or from a looked after background at any stage of their life, no matter how short, including adopted children who were previously looked after or those who access the Care Experienced Bursary in Scotland
- Students who have caring responsibilities. Caring responsibilities refers to a child or young person up to the age of 25 who provides (unpaid) care or intends to provide care for another person in, or outside of, the family home for someone who is physically or mentally ill, disabled, or misusing drugs or alcohol
- Estranged Students where neither of the students' parents can be found or it is not reasonably practicable to get in touch with either of them
- Refugees and asylum seekers
- Students who have completed the RVC Gateway programme
- Students who have attended the RVC Sutton Trust Summer School
