Professor Example is an excellent lecturer. He is passionate and engaging in the classroom and all of his lectures are both engaging and memorable. He is friendly, knowledgeable, and always has time for questions after each lecture.

Each of the sessions Prof Example has delivered are practical and a lot of consideration is taken into account of the content of each lecture. He always makes sure the content is both accessible and enjoyable.

Prof Example spends a lot of time preparing students for the transition from student to vet and the challenges we will face in the future. He is enthusiastic and engaging about the subject and lectures go by very quickly. I wish there were more lecturers like him! It is fantastic to have a lecturer who is interesting, knowledgeable, but also someone who can deliver that knowledge in an engaging way. His natural friendly personality clearly comes across in his lectures, which is very refreshing.

Thank you, Prof.

Dr Facilitator has a great teaching style that brings out the best in students. On the XXX rotation, she always manages to take the time to get us thinking about XXX, and how to distinguish between differential XXX. There are never any silly questions and her attention to detail is impressive. On the XXX rotation, her small group seminar on XXX was extremely helpful and inclusive, and helped us connect dots in terms of why/how XXX are done that really made learning easier. Thank you.

It has always been fun to have Dr Facilitator lead our sessions. She is funny and engaging, as well as of course very knowledgeable. She imparts this knowledge in a friendly, informal manner and asks questions in an encouraging way to aid our learning. If we do not know an answer then she will prompt us until we get it, so that we still feel a sense of accomplishment.
