14	Consequences of Failure
14.1	For Level 4, 5 & 6
14.1.1	A student who fails a module at the first attempt shall have a right to resit. They will be required to resit those pieces of work that were failed (with less than 40%) at the next available opportunity.
14.1.2	Where the student has not yet completed all of the modules in a Stage, they will be required to resit any piece of work with a mark of 30-39% in order to pass a module if it has not been passed on aggregate at the first attempt.
14.1.3	The module mark obtained at the second attempt will be no greater than 40%.
14.1.4	When a module resit involves a piece of assessed work, the amount of time the resit student is given to do that work should be the same as on the first occasion.
14.1.5	A student who is studying full time and has failed either the first or second year of their degree course at the second attempt and has not previously repeated a year of undergraduate study at the College (on any programme) will be entitled to repeat the year. The number of attempts at assessments will be the same as for those students not repeating the year. Students will carry forward any modules passed to the repeat year. All Year marks or module marks taken under the

Part 1 Assessment Regulations for Levels 4, 5, 6, 7

	'repeat year' rule will be capped at a maximum of a bare pass and that will be the mark carried forward for degree classification.
14.1.6	A student who is studying full time and has failed the year at the second attempt and has previously repeated a year of undergraduate study at the College (on any programme) will be required to withdraw from the course. They will have a right of appeal as described in College Regulations
14.1.7	A full-time student who has not passed at the end of a repeated year is required to appeal irrespective of any deferrals.
14.1.8	Any student who has failed after having taken all resit and repeat opportunities will be required to withdraw from the course. They will have a right of appeal as described in College Regulations.
14.2	For Level 7
14.2.1	A student who fails a Masters (Level 7) module at the first attempt shall have a right to resit. Any module taken for a second time will gain a mark no greater than 50%.
14.2.2	When a module resit involves a piece of assessed work, the amount of time the resit student is given to do that work should be the same as on the first occasion.
14.2.3	A student who has met the requirements for a BSc or BSc (Hons), or an MSci degree may opt to receive the degree after the first sitting. A student who takes this option shall relinquish their right to re-sit for the MSci (Hons) degree.
