

European College of Veterinary Pharmacology and Toxicology
&
European Society of Veterinary Nephrology and Urology

Symposium: Pharmacology and the Kidney

Date: Friday 19th July 2019 Time: 9.00-5.30pm

Venue: Royal Veterinary College, Camden, London, NW1 0TU

Programme:

- Pharmacology of nausea and emesis in renal disease (Ludovic Pelligand)
- Nausea, appetite and lean body composition in the renal patient (Yann Queau)
- Antimicrobial testing and break points: what do they mean? (Luca Guardabassi and Ludovic Pelligand)
- What's new in the ISCAID UTI guidelines? (Luca Guardabassi)
- Angiotensin receptor blockers: Effects beyond afferent arteriolar vasodilation? (Herve Lefebvre)
- Managing proteinuria and hypertension in the dog (Thierry Francey)
- Understanding hypoxia and HIF in renal disease (Caroline Wheeler-Jones)
- Drug targets for mineral and bone disease in CKD (Rebecca Geddes)

Registration: OPEN! Please access at:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/ecvpt-esvnu-meeting-tickets-58785975435>

- ESVNU/ECVPT members £70, Non-Members £100, Residents/Interns/PhD students £35
 - Please provide a letter confirming PhD/resident/intern status from supervisor (email to Ecvtresvnu Symposium@rvc.ac.uk)
- Abstract submission: See details on Eventbrite site – Submission deadline 17th May 2019
 - Free admission will be provided to PhD/intern/residents on acceptance of abstract for presentation
- Contact: jelliott@rvc.ac.uk <http://www.ecvpt.org>
rjepson@rvc.ac.uk <http://esvnu.eu>