<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>VETERINARY EPIDEMIOLOGY AND PUBLIC HEALTH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| MSc (7 modules)
2-5 years part-time | Pg Diploma (4 modules)
2-5 years part-time | Pg Certificate (2 modules)
1-5 years part-time |
| Three compulsory core modules:
- Epidemiology and animal health economics
- Statistical methods in veterinary epidemiology
- Veterinary public health | Two compulsory core modules:
- Epidemiology and animal health economics
- Veterinary public health | Two compulsory core modules:
- Epidemiology and animal health economics
- Veterinary public health |
| PLUS four additional optional modules selected from:
- Advanced statistical methods in veterinary epidemiology
- Developing and monitoring of livestock production systems
- Economics for livestock development and policy
- Management of infectious disease outbreaks in animal populations
- Research, design, management and grant application writing
- Research project in veterinary epidemiology and public health
- Surveillance and investigation of animal health | Plus two additional modules, chosen from the remaining core module and the optional modules of the MSc degree (excluding the Research Project):
- Advanced statistical methods in veterinary epidemiology
- Developing and monitoring of livestock production systems
- Economics for livestock development and policy
- Management of infectious disease outbreaks in animal populations
- Research, design, management and grant application writing
- Surveillance and investigation of animal health |  